Mystique of Cap d'Antibes

'Mystique of Antibes' look-book 03 shot in a little but wild beach in Cap d'Antibes. The location has been chosen from its beautiful but calm and wild settings to match with our fall winter colours and prints, army green, black and brown shades. For a long time the beach was only accessible by boat but now available for everyone from a little path.

The dresses, our well-known Koko and Sally designs are made to be worn with every kind of shoes and for all seasons. In fall winter the long dresses are easy to pull over with a pair of short or long boots.

Our new prints are designed to match the knits, mostly in pure cotton. Some are made of heavy cotton and other are made of light cotton. The knitting technique of Cassie and Riley are not only special and eye-catching but comfortable to wear because of its the hollow-out-effect which makes it airy and "free".

The Milana cropped pullover was designed with inspiration from our icon, Milana the pullover. It features a similar oversized cut and knitted texture that resembles hand knitting.
